Intro Search Feature

With the new CL7200 firmware update, a PLU search feature has been added. In this short guide we will show you how it works and cover any troubleshooting you may need to know. No action is required to start using the search feature, it will automatically be added to your home screen upon updating to the new firmware.

1. New Search Feature

The main POS interface displays a grid of PLU options. On the right side, a search key menu is visible, containing the following items:

- SEARCH NAME 1
- SEARCH NAME 2
- SKU NUMBER
- EDIT KEY
- C
- FEED
- PRINT

A red arrow points to the search key menu.

Three search keys have been added to the right side toolbar on both the Function and Categories Home Screen. You can search by NAME1, NAME2 and SKU #.

Search will filter PLU's based on input. When you select a PLU it will bring you directly to that item.

The POS interface shows the 'Apple- Fuji' PLU selected. The total price is $2.88. The search key menu on the right is still visible.

NAME1 Search Screen

The 'NAME1 Search Screen' displays a list of filtered items and a numeric keypad. The items listed are:

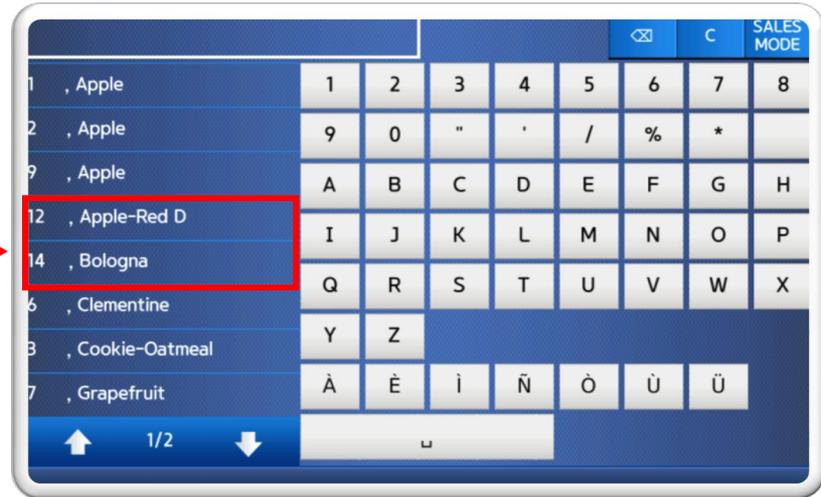

- 18 , Apple- Assorted Bag
- 16 , Apple- Cosmic Crsp
- 15 , Apple- Fuji
- 17 , Apple- Golden Delic.
- 1 , Apple-Ambrosia
- 14 , Apple-Grny. Smith
- 12 , Apple-Red D
- 9 , Apple-Single

The numeric keypad includes digits 0-9, symbols like %, *, and special characters like Æ, È, Ì, Ñ, Ò, Ù, Ü.

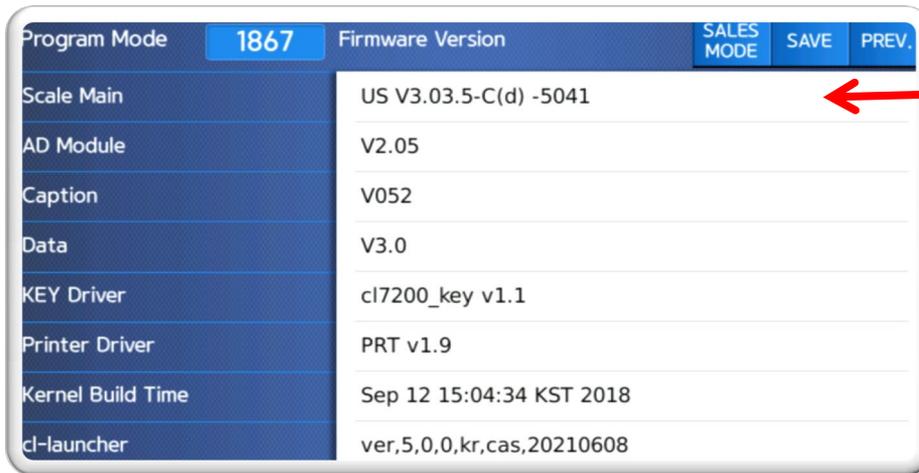

2. Search Feature Dept. And Troubleshooting

3. Search will populate ALL PLU's with name and PLU number, regardless of which Department they are in.

* If you don't see the search feature on your toolbar, check to make sure you have the latest CL7200 Firmware.

To check your scale use MENU 1867 and ensure you have: V3. 03.5-C(d) – 5041 or higher.

If you have the search feature on your toolbar, but it doesn't open OR it does not populate PLU's, you may need to initialize your scale. To do this please reach out to your local dealer. If you don't have a dealer then reach out to us directly at: sales@cas-usa.com . Thank you!
